GOOD FELLOWSHIP SPIRIT OF BANQUET

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET OF EAST CENTRAL WAS IN HONOR OF RETIRING MEMBERS OF COLLEGE FACULTY

The Junior-Senior Banquet given within the walls of E. C. S. N. proved to be a delightful affair. Vines, shrubbery, smilax and carnations were skillfully placed in order to bring out the class colors to the finest advantage.

Dr. Patterson, of Dallas, the retiring members of the faculty, sponsors for classes and the Juniors and seniors were the ones who enjoyed this pleasant occasion.

Informal greetings were exchanged in the reception room while music was played on the Victrola. In order that each Junior be greeted by all present, a long line of Juniors was formed. Everyone went down the line at least once. The hum of happy voices filled the place. One might easily imagine him self in a tropical clime from the brilliant coloring of evening gowns.

Assistant sponsor Norris called the names of couples to "line up" and soon all marched to the banquet hall in the basement of the building. Music by the Huber orchestra was enjoyed through out the evening.

The menu:

Fruit Cocktail
Baked Chicken Oyster Nut Dressing
Peas in Timbals Creamed Potatoes
Parker House Rolls
Pickles Olives Radishes
Salad Caesare Straws
Sherbet Angel Food Cake
Mints Cafe' noir
Invocation... Dr. N. P. Patterson.

TOASTS

The Seniors... Dov Tolliver
Senior Response... Oscar Parker
Senior Prophecy... Miss Carney
Our Voluntary Exiles... Dr. Gordon
The Future: The Call of Opportunity... Dr. Bradford
To E. C. S. N.... Mr. Perkins
Toastmaster... Raymond Caskey

The menu was skillfully served by members of the sophomore class. They were dressed in white and wore large pink bows.

After invocation by Dr. N. P. Patterson all were seated around the festal board.

Toastmaster Caskey was happy in his introductions. A genial vein thrived thru the toast. Pres. Doc Tolliver gave to the seniors. He referred to the Juniors as beasts and as a lion said he would roar. Using the first letters of word senior he said S stood for superiority and supremacy, E for enthusiasm and energy, N for nerve and nobility, I for innocence not imbecility, O for originality, R for reasonableness not rascality, and S for Sobriety.

Oscar Parker as president of the seniors was introduced as Dr. Parker. He said a doctor needs patients and those present would also need patience before he was thru. As the Juniors were called beasts he said the Senior might appropriately be called birds.

He then played upon the word Junior, said:

J. stood for just right—Juniors are always just right.
U. is for unique. What more unique than the toast just delivered.
N is for Naturally nice, true in particular of Junior girls.
I. for immature. While that is the condition of juniors now, just wait until they are seniors.
O. is for optimism. An optimist is one who doesn't know what's coming to him.
R. is for remarkable. This class is remarkable in having for assistant sponsor the largest man on the faculty and for it president the largest student in school.
S. is for smile. Wherever you find a junior you will surely find a smile. Speaking of smiling brought out these lines.

There was a young lady of Niger
Who went for a ride on a tiger.
They returned from the ride
And a smile on the face of the tiger.

He closed with an appreciation of the junior class for help and inspiration along the way, also for faculty members and other friends, ending with,

"Happy we meet
Happy have we been,
Happy may we part
Happy meet again."

Senior Prophecy.

I sat alone and listened
To the spring winds gently blow,
And my ears caught a prophecy
From voices soft and low.

The south wind sweetly told me
All the seniors will be great.
And I cried in my excitement,
"Tell me, tell me, all their fate!"

Then the answer wafted downward

MILL CREEK TEACHER COMMITS SUICIDE

MILL CREEK, May 18.—(Special.)—E. C. Hale, superintendent of schools of Mill Creek, committed suicide at his home here last night by shooting himself thru the brain. He died immediately. The weapon used was a 32 calibre pistol and the shooting occurred at 11:40 o'clock last night.

An inquest was held today and a verdict of suicide was returned by the jury. It developed at the hearing that for some time Hale, who was a married man, had been paying attention to a young lady teacher in the school here and that last night he was watched and caught in a compromising attitude with the teacher. He immediately went home and killed himself.

Mr. Hale had been at the head of the Mill Creek schools for the past three years and was known as a highly successful superintendent. He was a native of North Dakota and a graduate of Kansas university. He will be buried at Coalgate Wednesday.

E. C. Hale was well known in Ada, particularly among the teachers. He had taught two summers at East Central and was employed for this summer.

DANIELS ACCUSES SENATOR PENROSE

SAYS PENNSYLVANIA SENATOR WAS AUTHOR OF CHARGES AND ADMIRAL SIMS WAS HIS ECHO.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Senator Penrose, republican of Pennsylvania, and not Rear Admiral Sims originated the basic charges against the navy department contained in the admiral's letter of January 7th. Secretary Daniels asserted today before the senate investigating committee. Mr. Daniels recalled that the senator in a speech in the senate August 24, 1918, declared that, procrastination on the part of the secretary delayed the termination of the war at least three months, cost $15,000,000,000 and many lives.

"The words used by Senator Penrose used by Admiral Sims more than a year later," Mr. Daniels said. "Either Admiral Sims is a plagiarist and appropriated his views and charges from Senator Penrose, or by the due science of mental telepathy the views of the senator were communicated to Admiral Sims," declared Mr. Daniels.

"Mr. Penrose comes from Pennsylvania and Sims was appointed to the naval academy from that state. Did they collaborate or exchange mental telepathy?"

"Jazz Kid" Zasu Dancing Dynamo At The American

Zasu Pitts, as "The Jazz Kid" in "The Other Half," a Robertson-Cole superior picture release, distributed by Exhibitors Mutual, is a syncopated dynamo in this entirely human drama.

They called Jennie Jones "The Jazz Kid" because she couldn't make her feet behave, and how that slim wisp of a girl could step! She jizzed with her feet—she jizzed with her hands—she jizzed with her larynx!

"Sweet Cookie Mine!"
"Sweet Cookie Mine!"
"Gee, but I'm crazy
"About my Sweetie!
"Sweet Cookie Mine!"

The "Jazz Baby" is a refreshing and exhilarating type of the "poor working-girl" who didn't see any sense in moping or crying against her hard lot as she toiled in the hot laundry with the mercury trying to bust out the top of the tube.

The "Kid" was addicted to hyperbole.

"My Sweetie got the croicks—de—you know what I mean—for 'killin' two thousand Gaimans who attacked him—single-handed." She confided to the girls in the laundry.

When her "Sweetie" returned home, the "Jazz Kid" swallowed her gum in her excitement.

Then when "Sweetie" was nearly killed in an accident, the "Kid" tried to cheer him up with her jazzy little tune. "Sweet Cookie Mine," she started to warble, then collapsed on the floor of the hospital.

"The Jazz Kid" is a character that goes straight to the heart of every American, for she's whole-souled, sincere and a sunny little optimist. See it at the American today.

MCADOO SAYS HE IS NO CANDIDATE

FORMER SECRETARY SAYS HE WON'T EVEN ATTEND CONVENTION; "NOT IN THE GAME," HE ADDS.

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 18.—William G. McAdoo, former secretary of the treasury, is not a presidential office seeker, it was stated here last night.

"I am not in the political game, and I have no intention of being present at the democratic national convention," he said.

METHODISTS TO OBSERVE SUNDAY SCHOOL DAY

The regular county Sunday school convention is to be held in Ada during the period of the campaign and this will add greatly to the enthusiasm of the workers. At the meeting Sunday afternoon the quota for the Sunday school was set at 650, this number being double the attendance of any previous Sunday this year.

Plans have been made that virtually insure the success of the campaign and those in charge are confident that the First Methodist Sunday school will have an attendance of 650 on Sunday school day, June 13.

TURKS AND BULGARS FIGHT WITH GREEKS

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 18.—Greek and Turkish troops have clashed about 25 miles east of Smyrna, where the Turks are taking the offensive. The Turkish commandant at Adrianople has sent a message here from that place saying that 40,000 Turks and Bulgarians are prepared to resist the Greeks. He declared that they will meet the Greeks near Adrianople, when the Greeks begin the occupation of Thrace.

Gowns and Anita Stewart! The dainty star of "Mary Regan" displays some beauties. Whether riding over the mountains, presiding at a lobster supper in one of New York's ultra-cafes, eloping with her soon-to-be millionaire husband, or breakfasting in silken pajamas, she delights the eye and charms the devotees of fashion. WASHINGTON, May 18.—House representatives were notified today by Representative Towner, chairman of the party conference committee, that the soldier relief legislation would be considered at a party caucus to be held tomorrow night.

TWO REPORTS ON WAR WORK

REPUBLICANS DENOUNCE AND DEMOCRATS PRAISE GOVERNMENT CONDUCT OF NITRATE PLANTS.

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Two reports, one by republicans condemning the government's entire wartime nitrate program and charging reckless waste and extravagance, and the other by the democrats defending it and charging partisan bias by the majority, were presented today to the house by a special committee which took up the investigation nearly a year ago.

Along with its 41 general condemnations of the government policy, the republican majority submitted recommendations for future disposal of the Muscle Shoals property, which Representative Garrett, the democratic member, declared was beyond its province. Mr. Garrett indicated he would make a point of order against the report on that ground. Members said this would open the way for the biggest political fight in the house since the war investigating committee was created.

Flock of Lost Sea Gulls Visit Ada in Body This Morning

Many citizens were "rubbernecking" skyward this morning about nine o'clock, and thinking that a bevy of airships had come to town, a News reporter also tore out the door and took a peep.

It was discovered, however, that it was not an airship, but a flock of large white sea gulls, snow white except at the tips of the wings, and enormous in size. For more than an hour they soared over the city at various heights, very often coming down almost to the tops of the tallest buildings.

It is known that they are inhabitants of both oceans and the Gulf of Mexico, but they are never found inland. The birds appeared weak and in distress and there seemed to be no leadership. It is believed that the birds were wafted off the northwest Pacific coast in the northwesterly winds of the latter part of last week and hopelessly lost inland.

Laughlin Announces His Candidacy for Co. Commissioner

In the political announcement column of the News will be found the name of J. I. Laughlin, who is a candidate for county commissioner from the second district, subject to the action of the democratic primary in August.

Mr. Laughlin is now serving his first term as county commissioner. He was nominated over worthy opponents in 1918 and elected in the general election. Since his entrance to the office of commissioner he has been unusually active in looking after the interests of his constituency and has made a record for efficiency that is highly pleasing to his friends and the public generally.

Mr. Laughlin is one of the leading farmers of his section. He is thoroughly familiar with the needs of his district and has shown himself thoroughly capable of looking after those interests in a satisfactory way. The News asks its readers to give careful consideration to the candidacy of Mr. Laughlin.

Domestic Science Program at Normal Was A Good One

Of all the pretty affairs of the closing exercises at the Normal the banquet served by the members of the domestic science class to their mothers and teachers was the most unique.

The guests found their places at the festive board by means of dainty hand-painted place cards and the menu, all of which had been prepared by these very industrious little ladies and the manner in which the various committees conducted their separate work certainly reflects much credit upon Miss Kitchens, who has charge of this work.

The members of the class of 1919-1920 whose mothers attended this splendid exhibition of domestic talent were: Georgia Lee and Ida Clark; Maurine Harvey, Nellie Waldbey, Violet Smallwood, Augusta Stone, Senobia Hatcher, Grace Statter, Marjorie Norris, Wanda Brown, La Ruth Cassidy, Lula Riddle, and Bertha Mae Murdock.

Attention, R. A. M.

There will be a called communication of Ada Chapter No. 26, R. A. M., this evening at 7:30 for work in the Mark and Past Master degrees. All Royal Arch Masons cordially invited to attend.—F. C. Sims, Secretary.

OKLAHOMA CITY BUSINESS MEN ARRESTED

By the Associated Press OKLAHOMA CITY, May 18th.—Seven business men, six of this city, including a member of the state fair price commission were arrested by federal authorities today, following indictment returned against them by the federal grand jury charging violation of the Lever Act, by alleged profiteering in the sale of sugar.

Those arrested were: O. H. Dietz, Tunstall Morris, M. S. Cooter, Chas. E. Van Cleef, O. D. Halsel and Larry Farnum, all of Oklahoma City and Harry E. Alton of Enid. Van Cleef is a member of the state fair price commission. The men will be arraigned before Judge John Pollock in federal district court room here tomorrow. The grand jury returned nine indictments charging profiteering in the sale of sugar. Federal officials expected the remaining two to be served late today. Immediately following the arrests, wholesale grocers announced they would hold a meeting to consider the indictment. It was said a joint statement would be issued at the close of the meeting.

Officers After Negro Suspected Of Ada Burglary

S. M. Shaw went to Holdenville today where four negroes are in jail charged with burglarizing the Surprise Store at Wetumka two weeks ago. It is believed that one of the negroes was implicated in the burglary of Shaw's Department Store at Ada early last week. A suit case filled with goods stolen from the Shaw store was found at Beggs Sunday where it had been left by a negro. The officers of Okmulgee county are after this negro and his early arrest is expected.

Marrying a man to reform him may appeal to some of you girls—but beware. See what happens to Anita Stewart as Mary Regan. At the Liberty today.

COMMITTEE DEADLOCK OVER ARMY BILL

WASHINGTON, May 18.—A deadlock on the army reorganization bill was reached today by the senate and house conferees. Senate provision to reorganize the force caused the breach, and the question will be brought before the house for a vote.

The disagreement, Chairman Wadsworth, one of the senate managers, said, came despite an offer from the senate side to strike out the senate provisions for voluntary military training for youths between 18 and 21 years of age.

MEAT PRICES SHOW DECLINE, SAY PACKERS

PROFITEERING HIT BY WALSH

MASSACHUSETTS SENATOR SAYS EXTORTIONS CAUSE UNREST AND ADDS THAT CONGRESS IS "CULPABLY INACTIVE"

WASHINGTON, May 18.—Profiteering was denounced today in the senate by Senator Walsh, democrat of Massachusetts, who asserted that extortions of profiteers are the principal causes of widespread unrest and that congress has been "culpably inactive" in moving to relieve the situation.

Senator Walsh cited many large dividends, including stock dividends paid recently by big corporations and declared the public outcries against the high cost of living were an acute political problem.

Republican leadership and increased majorities Senator Walsh said, are responsible for lack of an act for profiteering legislation. "We cannot shift the responsibility to the president or department heads," he said.

Recommendation, made by Senator Walsh to check profiteering were:

"Senatorial investigation of income tax returns to disclose individual profiteering."

"Passage of several pending bills, including the packers' regulation measure, the bills to stamp the cost prices on shoes, the cold storage regulation bill and others."

"I further recommend," said Senator Walsh, "that congress promptly inaugurate public trading on a large scale unless exorbitant profits are voluntarily and materially reduced at once. In other words, I recommend government competition as an available remedy."

Among the incidents of corporate profiteering cited by Senator Walsh, were those of the "big five" packers, as reported by the federal grain commission, the American Woolen company and several textile mills steel companies, coal operators and news print manufacturers.

Latest Mexican Revolution Will Fail Says Louis Lopez

The latest Mexican revolution will be a failure, said Louis Lopez, local Mexican citizen to a reporter for today.

Mr. Lopez is the man who sells tamales and candy on the streets of Ada. He has been in Ada for about 16 years, and while many people do not know it, he has a world grasp of economic questions, and especially does he understand conditions in his native Mexico.

Mr. Lopez was brought up in the state of Zacatecas, northwestern old Mexico. For many years he was publisher of a newspaper in his home state with decided views in opposition to the old Diaz government. Because of his so-called radicalism Mr. Lopez was compelled to leave the country and his printing establishment and other property was destroyed. He came to Ada in 1904 and has made this city his home since.

Mr. Lopez says the latest effort of Oregon and Gonzales to overthrow the Carranza government in Mexico is bound to be a failure. He thinks the men at the head of the government may have temporary success, but because they are self seekers and have not the higher interests of their country at heart they will not be able to keep their power. Louis says they can not give as good government to Mexico as Carranza has given and the Carranza government is not a patriotic government, according to his viewpoint.

Mr. Lopez says that unless the new dictators of Mexico do much toward improving the conditions of the masses in Mexico that Villa will take up his guerrilla warfare again.

FINE EXERCISES AT HICKORY GRADUATION

Rev. R. C. Taylor, pastor of the Methodist church of Ada, preached the baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class of the Hickory High school last Sunday night.

Mr. Taylor says the school at Hickory is one of the best he has seen in Oklahoma. They have a full high school course and the work they are doing is commendable. Eight pupils graduated this week, five boys and three girls. All of the eight expect to continue until they secure college educations, says Rev. Taylor, and most of them will enter East Central at the beginning of the summer term.

Funston Gaither, an East Central graduate was principal of the Hickory High School during the past year. He will attend the University of Oklahoma next year.

Rice divided the sum with Clarence Kummer, who rode Blazes, the other Parr entry. Before the race, Parr told the jockies he would reward the winner to this extent so they decided to split it evenly. This is the largest amount ever given a jockey for riding a winner in Kentucky.

Governor Likes Golf.
By the Associated Press
OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., May 18.—Enthusiasm for a newly acquired hobby, that of playing golf, threatens to encroach upon the erstwhile single pastime of Gov. J. B. A. Robertson of Oklahoma, that of fishing.

It is not infrequently said about the state house here that the governor would set up at any hour of the night to go on a fishing trip. Already this summer, the governor, accompanied by Mrs. Robertson, has made several fishing trips. Medicine Park is the favorite haunt of the party and it is said the governor's luck this spring has included several one-pounders.

Marries Chief Witness.
Miss Etta May Perry was chief witness against Edward H. Troost, president of a large Chicago packing company. Troost was charged with using the mails to defraud. The only testimony that would convict him was that of Miss Perry, his stenographer. So he married her. Now, under the statutes she can't testify against him, being his wife. So, you see, there are many ways to evade the law.

3 million dollars worth of phonograph

Do you want to see what 3 million dollars' worth of phonograph looks like?—what three million dollars' worth of phonograph sounds like?—why anyone would put this staggering amount into one single solitary phonograph?

Come into our store and let us show you an exact duplicate of the Original Official Laboratory Model of

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

The Original Official Laboratory Model. That's a name to conjure with. That's the phonograph which cost 3 million dollars.

Remember the 7 long years during which Mr. Edison experimented night and day. Remember the marvelous result he achieved.

Remember the countless times that exact duplicates of the Official Laboratory Model have matched their art directly against living artists,—and have proved that there is no difference between a singer's voice—or instrumentalist's performance—and its RE-CREATION by the New Edison.

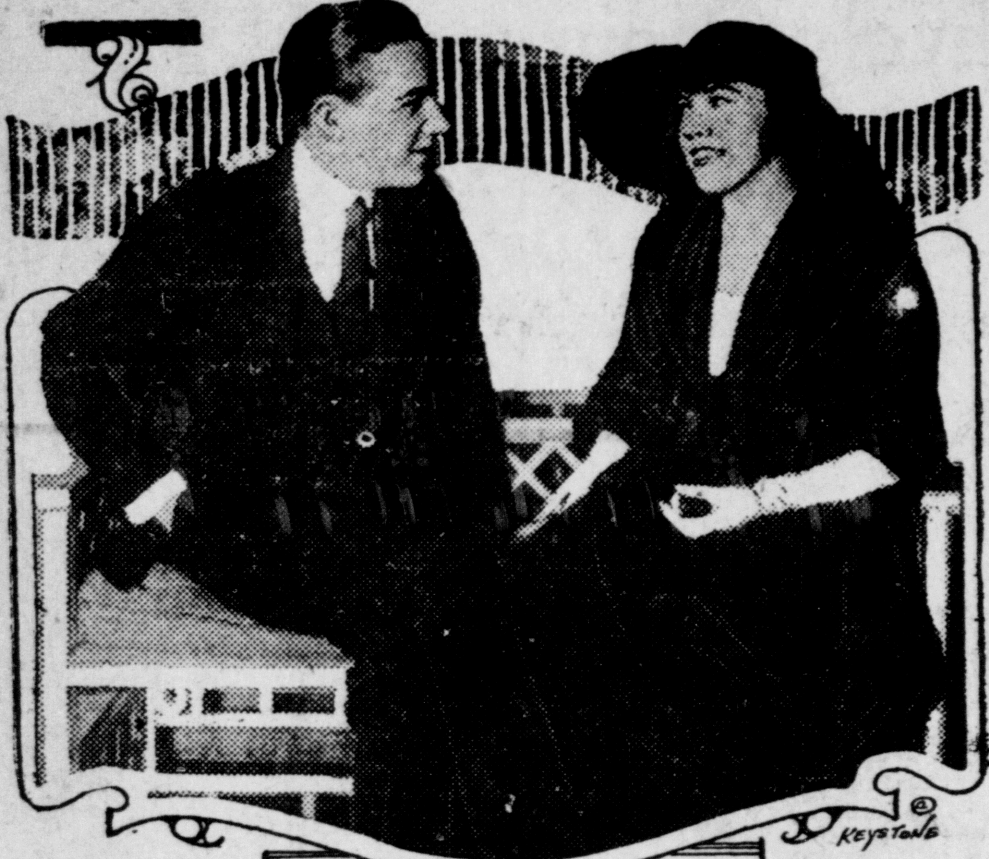

We have exact duplicates of the 3 million dollar Original Official Laboratory Model. We guarantee that they will also match the living artist and equal the entire 3 million dollar musical ability of its famous prototype.

Our Budget Plan! The idea of common-sense Americans, from Ben Franklin to Theo. A. Edison, applied to the purchase of a New Edison. Do you know about it?

CHORUS MAN FALLS HEIR TO FORTUNE AND PROMPTLY WEDS SWEETHEART IN CHORUS

Harry Blake and his bride, nee Miss Mackay

Harry Blake, until a few days ago, was working his way through Columbia University by singing in the chorus of "Irene" in New York. He was in love with Miss Mackay, also in the chorus. Lack of funds was holding up the romance and threatening his college career. Then lawyers informed him that on attaining his majority he had come into a fortune of $150,000 left by his father, Charles Blake, a song writer. He married Miss Mackay, quit the chorus and arranged for day class hours at college.

DISGRACE TO DIE RICH SAYS STRAUS

MILLIONAIRE, 72, SOON TO GO TO PALESTINE TO AID IN RESTORATION WORK THERE.

By the Associated Press

NEW YORK, May 17.—An ambition to die poor because "it is a disgrace for a man to die rich," was expressed yesterday by Nathan Straus, 72 years old, retired millionaire philanthropist.

"It is criminal not to share with those who are poor and suffering," he added, "and the man who dies with world riches has failed in the greatest thing in life—his duty to the world."

If this hope is fulfilled he "shall be rich in happiness and in good works," Straus said. "There is no satisfaction in money alone. Food and home, work and play—they are for rich and poor alike, and I find that the only lasting satisfaction is in what we can do for the world," he declared.

Brotherhood of Man. "Religion has never made any difference in my giving," continued Straus, "for the brotherhood of man is greater than creed or sect. I have given my fortune away once over but I have given nine-tenths of this money to Christians and only a tenth to those of my own faith. Where there is suffering, Jew and Christians are alike, and I have given irrespective of faith. I only hope that by so doing I may set an example to other men who are rich that they may give also."

"Making money, you know, is a game, but money itself is of no value. I am now rich but I have been very poor, for my family, whose home was in Georgia, lost all their money in the Civil War, and I began at the very bottom. When a man has acquired a certain sum, however, he cannot help but grow richer. Once you have more money than you need to live on, it begins to pile up, to accumulate. Then is the time to begin saving."

Old Hebrew Saying. "There is an old Hebrew saying, 'What you give in health is gold; what you give in sickness is silver, and what you give after death is iron.'"

"You see," Straus smiled, "I am trying to live on a gold basis."

"Since I believe this you cannot blame me for trying to get rid of my money. Of course I want to help the Jews, my own people, and I am greatly interested in the Zionist movement to restore Palestine. I have just given $100,000 toward the general fund of the movement, and another $100,000 toward the medical research and health service department of the University of Jerusalem."

Rockefeller's Work. "I believe there is no man who is doing more good for the world than John D. Rockefeller and his son. They understand the responsibility of wealth and know their duty to humanity. And it is my greatest wish that I may aid them, giving my riches. You see, I am now trying to get rid of my properties."

"Each year of the past six years since I retired from active business I have given away sums far larger than my income. Even now I shall have to sell property to raise the money for these pledged sums that I have made."

"And I hope that other rich men may do likewise. For then when they die they will be poor in the world's goods, but rich, very rich, in happiness. I believe firmly in another life and another world, and the riches that we give to those who suffer are the only riches that we may have there."

Asked if there was any truth in the report that he was to be elected president of the republic of Palestine, Straus replied: "I am 72 years old—too old for a political position, and I do not desire one."

Tested Eighteen Months to Prove Perfection

TWO years ago a puncture-proof cord tire was unheard of.

Many experts believed the final development in pneumatic tire-making had been reached with the production of a Fabric puncture-proof—the only one, the LEE.

Motorists naturally looked to LEE for a puncture-proof cord.

LEE has succeeded in building such a tire. It has all the economy and resiliency of the best cord tires. It practically eliminates blowouts, tread separation, broken sidewalls and other common tire troubles. And it is positively puncture-proof!

For 18 months this tire was cruelly tested before being offered to the public. It rode as lightly and as smoothly as a cord without the puncture-proof feature. It was as economical on fuel and oil. It was easier on tubes. And—it outlasted cord tires that were not puncture-proof!

Let us demonstrate the economy of the new LEE CORD PUNCTURE-PROOF.

HISTORY OF NUMBER 40

Forty years ago an old doctor, Gwin, was putting up a medicine for diseases of the glandular system, blood troubles, eczema, constipation, stomach and liver troubles, chronic rheumatism, catarrh, sores, ulcers, pimples, skin eruptions, mercurial and lead poisoning. Under its use bodily eruptions and scrofulous swellings that have withstood all other treatment disappear as if by magic. To commemorate my fortieth year as a druggist I named this medicine "Number 40 for the blood." J. C. Mendenhall, Evansville, Ind. Sold by Gwin & Mays Drug Store. Adv.

When the baby laughs, when the sun shines, when the flowers bloom, when dinner sends out its inviting aroma; when anyone of ten thousand things happen which attract your attention and gain your interest, you are being advertised to.

And that is the "why" and the whole purpose of any advertisement; to gain your attention, secure your interest, arouse your desire; to tell you something you don't know, to remind you of something you have forgotten, to convince you of something concerning which you have been hesitating, to help you get the best at the least cost.

We rise to inquire what plans our civic organizations have to clean up Ada this spring. The warm days of summer and the continued showers are conjuring the flies out of the trash piles and their verdant wings and insistent humming will soon furnish pastime for citizens who like to fan flies. Typhoid and kindred ailments will soon begin their ghastly levy on the lives of our population and the mounds of earth will begin to multiply out at Rosedale. Now is the time to exercise that prevention which is better than a world of cures. Now is the accepted time for a general clean-up. If we do not take the time to clean up the filth of the city, we shall have to take time later on to bury our dead. What about it, civic societies? What about it, city authorities? Shall we clean up the city or shall we not?

Politics is said to hide a multitude of sins. Only last week a senatorial candidate was to deliver an address at Enid. In order to build up some political fences, a German citizen was given a prominent place on the platform. A small American flag was among the decorations. When the orator ascended the platform the German took the flag and carefully brushed the dust from the chair where the orator was to sit. Two years ago such an insult to the flag would have won exceedingly rough treatment for the German. Today it is hardly noticed by a busy world. Yes, politics like charity is supposed to cover a multitude of sins.

The congress of all the people has asked the president to send a warship to the Black Sea to protect the lives and property of American citizens. This is the same congress that would have none of a league of nations that might force "our boys to fight and die in European quarrels" and was so anxious for us "to get out of Europe and stay."

Shall We Change its Name?

There is a street in our little city just four blocks from Broadway, west, called Johnson avenue. Last year this street was graded and as it happened, it didn't get quite the proper pitch, and a beautiful lake has been formed by the heavy winter and spring rains in the 500 block.

Every evening the frogs hold a concert here but as the passers by stop to listen to the beautiful strains of music they are forced by mosquitoes to move on. About two weeks ago some parties drove a fine bunch of red hogs down this avenue. The parties having a kindly feeling toward the brutes and knowing what they most enjoyed, stopped to let them have a time. But there happened to be a lady near back in her kitchen with her churning who has a very sensitive smell, so she proceeded to disturb the pleasure of both man and brute by asking them to please move on.

Now we (on this street) have called mayor, sanitary officer and street man to drain this lake or dis-infect it but, oh, they are so busy.

We got up a petition in the winter to have this avenue paved but it will be awful hard to wait till they grade it for paving, as we realize it will be some time before they get this far out.

Will some one please ask the game warden for some fish for our lake?

And if possible, let's change the name to "Frog avenue."

MRS. C. F. BURDEN.

Cotton Market

(As furnished by Ada Cotton Exchange.)

Cotton
NEW ORLEANS, May 18.—While there is some improvement in climatic conditions in the western and central portions of the belt, rains continue in the eastern portion, and crop accounts are generally very unfavorable. There is general complaint of necessity to replant at this late date, of seed and labor shortage poor stands and want of cultivation, while large areas in Arkansas, Mississippi and Louisiana are inundated by overflowing streams and backward. In some sections of North Texas, the Mississippi valley and south Atlantic states, crop conditions are described as deplorable. Reports coming to hand from nearly all sections of the cotton region indicate a very low government bureau crop condition report on June 2, especially if there is no material improvement in weather conditions between now and May 25th, on which date returns will be made to Washington. The first of the numerous monthly private crop condition estimates to be issued in advance of the June Bureau report was issued today, returns pointing to the lowest condition on record for this time of the year, averaging 67 vs. 75.6 last year, the previous lowest 69.5 in 1917, and the ten year average of 73.8. Whenever the crop conditions on May 25 is below the ten year average the start is usually unfavorable and this year it may be nearly ten points lower. To make the situation the more unfavorable for a large yield advances are to the effect that there will be little or no increase in the acreage compared with last year's small total of about 34,000,000. The coming uneasy as regards poor crop prospects, reports from the interior denote more interest in spots on the part of European spinners more inquiry noticed which is the case here also. The statistical position of cotton in the south is strong only 3,679,000 bales remaining to be marketed of last year's large carry over, and last year's crop against 4,269,000 last year and stocks at all ports are 139,000 less than one year ago, much of which is low grades, bolls etc. while the new crop is very late.—H. & B. Grain

Chicago Tribune says—"The future action of the grain markets is dependent largely upon the weather and car supply, to a greater extent upon the latter. Should there be a material increase in receipts of corn and oats it is said there will have to be an enlargement in speculative buying that will off set an increased selling pressure. Longs are getting out on all bulges and breaks are expected to have greater breadth. The markets yesterday had a good come back but the late rally did not carry prices up to the early high. This encouraged the bears, who are looking for weak spots and evidence of an end of the bull movement. Exports of wheat are expected to be reported from Russia in the immediate future. A cable yesterday claimed Italians were being rushed to Odessa to lead grain for export. The future action of the grain market is dependent largely upon the weather and car supply to a greater extent upon the latter.

IT WAS A BIG TIME THEY HAD AT McALESTER

We are a little late in saying it but the News editor wishes to say that the twenty-ninth annual midsummer meeting of the Oklahoma Press association which was held at McAlester May 7th and 8th was a revelation both to the people of McAlester and to the old faithfuls who have been attending the three annual meetings which this association holds, for many years, in that the attendance and interest far exceeded any previous meeting and the entertainment provided both by the hospitable people of McAlester and the members of the association themselves was decidedly novel and interesting.

The summer sessions of the Oklahoma association have always been held at the clubhouse at Medicine Park, but, its location being somewhat inaccessible for many of the members, it was decided at the 1919 meeting to hold the midsummer sessions in various cities over the state, and to then hold the annual picnic for such members as could conveniently attend, at the club house in August. McAlester asked for the first meeting under the new plan.

For the first time in some years railroad transportation was available, which helped some on the attendance. Nearly five hundred editors and members of their families responded to the call, and this, with the excellence of the program arranged, made the meeting one by which future sessions will be measured. The principal speaker was Dr. Burris Jenkins, editor of the Kansas City Post who discussed social and industrial conditions generally.

McAlester has the Oklahoma penitentiary, one of whose wardens is A. R. Garrett, a newspaper man. The entire party of editors were shown through the plant, which is one of the most modern in equipment and management in the country, and then sat at lunch at the same table the regular inmates had just left. The boys were given a chance to pick out cells and select their industries, and a few were reprimanded, in order to save time later on. Following the trip through the penitentiary, which included a reception for the ladies at the home of Warden Fred Switzer, the ladies of the Fortnightly club of McAlester entertained at Chadwick Park with their pageant "Oklahoma", which was excellently put on.

The annual banquet was the best show of the season. The committee in charge dispensed absolutely with attempts at serious speechmaking, and conducted the dinner on the gridiron plan, and Oklahoma newspaper and political history of recent vintage was handled exactly as national politics suffer at the Washington Press club session. The impersonations and their impersonators included the following: Toastmaster, Ben F. Lafayette, chairman of the democratic state committee, by Walter M. Harrison, editor of the Daily Oklahoman, Oklahoma City; Governor Robertson, by Wayne Campbell, State Historical society; Adjutant General Barrett, by George B. Parker, editor Oklahoma City Daily News; John G. Goble, who is the editor of the Guthrie Register and the champion long-distance speaker of the association, by W. H. McDowell of the Kansas City Paper House; Campbell Russell, corporation commissioner, editor of the Cat, which is all its name implies, and the stormy petrel of Oklahoma politics, by W. R. Martineau, editor of the Oklahoma Live Stock News; Amos Ewing, republican political leader, by Walter Ferguson of the Employer, Tulsa; Jake Hamon, republican national committeeman, by U. S. Russell of the corporation commission; Senator T. P. Gore, by President J. W. Kayser of the association; Hon. Scott Ferris, opposing Mr. Gore for the senate, by L. G. Niblack of the Guthrie Leader; Mayor R. K. Pemberton of McAlester, by Elmer V. Jessee of the Mangum Star.

In addition, a number of stunts of the usual gridiron variety were interspersed. Following the banquet, Bill McDowell of the Kansas City Paper House and U. S. Russell of the state corporation commission put on a private show in the leading soda stand of the city. McDowell attempted to flirt with Mrs. Russell, which resulted in Russell attacking him with a knife, when McDowell responded with a six shooter. All records were broken by the clerks and customers in clearing the store, leaving the place to the proprietor, who had been tipped off, and the "combatants," with their wives. Altogether McAlester enjoyed the session as much as the editors did.

In addition to business sessions, in which the main subject of attention was the future of the Central Advertising Bureau, which has been placed under the management of the school of journalism at Oklahoma university, the second day was given over to the barbecue at Chadwick park, as the guests of the commercial club and a trip through the coal mines. The club offers a prize of a carload of coal for the best 500-word editorial on McAlester by any editor who was at the meeting, and in order to prepare the boys properly, all who cared to were taken down into the mines. The final event of the session was a ball.

The next midsummer convention will be held at El Reno, followed by two days at the clubhouse at Medicine Park.

The new officers are: R. M. Elam, the Pawhuska News, president; J. L. Newland, Frederick Leader, first vice president; L. R. Myers, McAlester News-Capital, second vice president; Miss Dorothy Eaton, Chattanooga News, third vice president; S. E. Bronson, the El Reno American, re-elected secretary-treasurer, as usual.

District presidents: First, L. D. Harding, Pryor Republican; second, C. E. Looney, Muskogee Times-Democrat; third, Mrs. E. Reed, Ardmore Advocate; fourth, Marvin Brown, Ada News; fifth, W. R. Martineau, Oklahoma City Live Stock News; sixth, George H. Evans, Chickasha Express; seventh, C. S. Seely, Sayre Headlight; eighth, Mrs. Frank Lucas, Ponca City.

PROF. CHARLES W. WADDELL

The above is the likeness of Prof. Charles W. Waddell, noted lecturer on purity, Biblical and historical subjects, and writer of many books, who has been lecturing on the streets of Ada for the past two days. He leaves Ada tonight for Tulsa.

Prof. Waddell is not the ordinary street speaker—he is an extraordinary speaker and handles some of the liveliest topics in which the human family is interested. He has been before the public for seventeen years and is known in practically every state in the union. Mr. Waddell has written five very interesting books, but he thinks his third and biggest book, "The Way of Cain, or the Handwriting on the Wall," is his best production. He sells these books at his lectures.

The writer first ran across Mr. Waddell in a little town in Kansas about fifteen years ago and has met up with him on his street speaking campaigns in several other states since that time. He is a man of deep religious convictions, free from radical denominationalism of any character, and his lectures will do any man good who hears them. He has had large and attentive audiences at all of his lectures in this city.

Around Town

The Daily Rounds of a Reporter, Told By Himself.

Entered the Guaranty State Bank this morning and interviewed Cecil J. Mallory, the cashier.

"Know any news?" I asked. "None," he replied.

Stood around there for a few moments and thought something might happen—probably a hold-up. Not being of the type that likes to loaf I started out.

"Wait a minute," he says. There was a scrap down on the West end last night and if you will go down that way maybe you'll find some one that will give you the story."

Alright, heregoes, and I am on my way down to the scene of former activities.

Had started to pass the Stevens-Wilson store when Wm. Pennington, the genial shoe salesman, hailed me.

"Come in," he says.

"Coming, but I don't want to buy a thing today," I replied.

"Don't want to sell you anything unless you really want it, I want to tell you that I was over at Checotah Sunday to see my wife, had a nice time and everything."

"Fine, and, by the way, do you know of anything else of interest to the paper-reading public?" I asked.

"Boy I am so tickled over my trip I didn't notice anybody else that did anything."

About face Forward march.

Stopped by the McSwain theatre building and watched the construction of Ada's new theatre. Made a few notations and picked out the place I wanted to be seated for the opening show. Of course I had to make reservations for two as my kid brother may visit me on or about that time (?)

Anyway the place looked O. K. and will be completed about June 16.

Just got myself arranged down at the Haynes Hardware store when Frank Chambers, one of the store's bookkeepers came up to me and said: "Are you the fellow that wrote the article about Cats a few days ago?"

I looked him over and saw that he was not mad and answered in the affirmative.

"That was very good, and I have some items for you today." He had some friends, relatives and a few other people over to see him Sunday and stated that everybody seemed to enjoy the day at his home.

"The neighbor's cats are about the only one who don't like for me to have company, as they feel as if they are deprived of a feast on my chickens."

Met a fellow and asked him if he knew anything about the fight last night.

"Sure, I have a brother who saw a fellow who took part."

Got a few notes for the story—about all I wanted, for most of the participants were in jail and could be seen at any time.

Went over to the Home Guaranty Title company's office. Have a good friend over at that place, one Mr. Harold Constant.

He furnishes the paper with a daily report on real estate transfers and all the news—except that on himself.

"Where were you Sunday?" I asked.

"Well, I was over in the south part of Ada on business."

It seems as if Harold is a very busy man, especially on Sunday and in that particular part of town.

Stopped in at Fleet Cooper's Garage and asked about news and business prospects, etc.

I was informed by Mr. Cooper that he has three Nash cars for delivery as soon as road conditions permit. Fine bunch of boys around that place and furnish lots of news.

I met Judge Roland in front of the Cooper Garage and he stated that he was leaving today for Hugo, where federal court is being held.

"Anyone going with you?" I asked.

"I don't think so, but my wife sure wanted to go. However, I thought she might not like that city and persuaded her to stay at home."

I will return by way of Pauls Valley and have some business over there to attend to."

I have since learned that John P. Crawford left on the same train with Judge Roland, which should be a consolation to the Judge's family, as he is evidently in good company.

LEADER OF NATIONAL WOMAN'S PARTY HEAR SUFFRAGE CASE IN SUPREME COURT

Prominent members of the national woman's party attended the Supreme Court hearing on the Ohio Suffrage Referendum case. Ohio has been counted in the ratification column, but if the court allows a referendum on suffrage it will be necessary for the suffragists to obtain ratification in another state if women are to vote for the next president. Among the prominent suffragists at the hearing were Mrs. Richard Wainwright, wife of Admiral Wainwright and member of the executive committee of the party, and Miss Sue White, chairman of the party's research division.

Five hundred thousand people died from influenza during the epidemic in this country, according to estimates of the United States public health department.

"We have been waiting for this for twelve hundred years," declared M. Stamboulinski, only representative of Bulgaria, as he placed his signature to the peace treaty at Paris.

Gay Havana Bidding For Monte Carlo's Fast Life Honors

"Is Havana going to be a second Monte Carlo?"

"Are American business men and wealthy folk still rushing to the Cuban port every day?"

"Because there are a great many empty cellars and because of the scarcity of even dollar drinks in America; is it true that many have sought Havana as a sort of second heaven or haven?"

Leopold Dolz, Cuban Consul-General, recently returned to New York from a long stay in Havana, said:

"Havana's popularity is growing daily. It is fast becoming a city of palaces and never have I seen such crowds, such hordes of people. Hotel rooms or suites without reservations are as impossible to secure as they were in Washington during the war. Many beautiful homes are being built. Rodman Wainmaker is building a large department store there and everything is simply swimming."

Why this sudden change? Why is the place so popular when opera tickets are $35, a suite of two rooms during the racing season $35 a day and prices about twice as much as the highest places on Broadway? Well, because there ARE things in Cuba, which can be bought for the same price they could three years ago in New York City, and moreover there are plenty of such things.

"For instance: Cocktails of all varieties, including the Bronx, Clover Club, Martini and Manhattan, may be purchased for 30 and 35 cents. Highballs sell for 30 cents, champagne may be bought for $6 a bottle and Bacardi rum, a favorite Cuban drink, may be purchased for 30 cents. No straight whiskey is sold, but there are plenty of tempting concoctions."

"Although a man can only bring 50 cigars and 10 cigarettes into this country free of charge, he certainly revels in the 6 cent cigar while there," continued Mr. Dolz. "That 6 cent cigar is better than the 30 cent one bought in New York, and the Havana 20 cent cigar is equal to our $1 one."

"So you see," summed up Mr. Dolz from behind his own fragrant Havana, "that the place has its charms. Considering the attractive races, the delightful climate, the cigars and the free flow of liquor, it is no wonder the tourists are flocking there."

"Is there much gambling there?"

"The Casino is simply a second Monte Carlo," replied Mr. Dolz. "Stylishly dressed women and well groomed men are there and an air of luxury pervades the whole atmosphere. Saturdays and Sundays the women go to the races. That seems to be the day when they stare at each other's clothes. But the other days are given over to the gamblers exclusively."

"The Americans are all crazy over the game called Jai Alai, which is similar to American hand ball, only it is played with baskets, worn on the hands."

"Nor is Havana going to be just a haven for tourists. Many people have come to stay. Some of the homes that are being built are valued between $500,000 and $1,000,000. One of these deals was a real-estate bought by Rodman Wainmaker for $1,000,000. This place was formerly valued at one-tenth of this amount."

The price of lang, hotel suites, opera tickets and the betting chances may eat into a man's pocketbook, but the climate, the cigars and a few other things are quite well worth it. Anyway, that is the way many seem to feel about it," concluded Mr. Dolz. "No doubt a good many songs will be written about 'Heavenly Havana' in the near future. It certainly was a popular place this winter and spring."

OILTON BANKER CHEATED OF BRIDE BY AN ARMY MAN

OILTON, Okla., May 18.—Creek county bankers are sorry for F. W. Abshire, Oilton banker, who lost both principal and interest when he started out on a marriage venture. Abshire had a sweetheart in Kentucky, and he had it all arranged to foreclose on the contract. Packing a two-gallon hat and clawhammer coat in his traveling bag, he started out to claim his bride.

But you can't always tell about "these women."

A young army captain had been sitting up nights with Banker Abshire's bride elect. And he had covered considerable territory. In fact, he had convinced Miss Cora Lee Hart, Elizabethtown, Ky., lady that squads right was better than money changing.

When Banker Abshire arrived at Elizabethtown last week to claim his bride, she wasn't waiting at the gate.

Elaborate wedding plans of the Kentucky girl, and the young Oklahoma banker were automatically annulled Tuesday when Miss Hart, exercising a woman's prerogative, changed her mind and became the bride of Hugh Love, Indianapolis, a former army captain.

She forgot, it seems to write her fine about it. The banker wooed and "won" Miss Hart when she lived to Oklahoma after she divorced her first husband here. Their engagement was not announced, however, until six weeks ago, it being made public at an announcement party here. May 15 was the date set.

He was disappointed to learn that Miss

BRITISH STILL HOPEFUL FOR LEAGUE OF NATIONS

By the Associated Press

MANCHESTER, Eng., May 17.—Lord Reading, lord chief justice of England and former ambassador to Washington, talks hopefully of the prospects of a league of nations.

"Whether the league becomes a weapon for the preservation of peace, or whether it withers and dies does not depend upon the government, on statesmen or politicians, but upon the peoples of the member countries," he told the Manchester chamber of commerce. "In time to come, if the public of the various countries will put their heart and soul into it, we may eventually arrive at a stage when war might be regarded as a thing of the past."

Lord Reading said the words of Washington's farewell address were treasured by the American people "as perhaps never had words of man been treasured." This he cited as illustrating the very strong conservative traditions of the United States which he asked his audience to take into account in considering the present American attitude toward the league.

INCREASED PRODUCTION NEED OF GERMANY

By the Associated Press

BERLIN, May 18.—Germany's paper money now in circulation amounts to 60,000,000 marks and is increasing by 1,000,000,000 marks a week, declares August Mueller, federal minister of economics.

The printing of bank notes is the only flourishing industry in Germany today, he writes in an article in the Abendblatt. He attributes this activity in printing of money to government subsidies undertaken in a vain effort to reduce the prices of food and also by the continual increasing of salaries to "an absurdly growing officialdom who find next to nothing they are not better off, owing to the overnight decline of the buying power of the paper mark."

Germany's indebtedness, says Herr Mueller, is now about 230,000,000,000 marks. This, he adds, is perhaps redeemable at the present low value of the mark but never if it recovers even half its former value.

Herr Mueller is unable to see a remedy except in increasing production which, he says, seems to preoccupy the present rulers of Germany less than anxiety to keep in office.

Sell that old stuff you do not need with a News Want Ad.

FOR QUICK RELIEF FROM CHILLS, AGUE, MALARIA, ETC.

YOUR DEALER WILL ALWAYS RECOMMEND SWAMP CHILL AND FEVER TONIC.

One dealer says, "I handle all the standard chill tonics on the market, but sell ten bottles of Swamp Chill and Fever Tonic to one of any other kind. After a customer has once used it he or she will use no other kind."

Numerous other dealers find it the same. And thousands of sufferers from malaria and similar ailments swear by this famous old remedy. They keep it in the house all the time.

Swamp Chill Tonic brings safe, certain and permanent relief. It generally breaks up malaria chills in three days. It contains no calomel, and is pleasant to take. No purgative has to be taken with it, as the tonic itself acts gently and agreeably upon the liver and bowels.

Swamp Chill Tonic is prescribed by numerous leading physicians. They know that its ingredients form the best remedy there is for malaria and ague. And it's just as good for colds and grippe, too.

Price 60 cents at all dealers. Get a bottle today.—Adv.

"Selfishness is gripping the throats of Capital and Labor in their mad efforts, one to get the better of the other; we are a breeding ground here in America where thousands of human beings are born into anarchy. Bolshevism was born in America; it took America to produce a Trotsky. The great majority of Bolsheviks in America were simple-minded Russian folks who left Russia because they thought us a land where 'all people are born free and equal.' We cannot maintain the Constitution unless both the Red flag and the profiteers' black flag are destroyed." — Congressman Welty

FARMERS REFUSE TO SUPPLY CITIES

By the Associated Press

VIENNA, May 18.—Complaint that farmers refuse to plant food crops for sale to Vienna and other cities is frequently heard here.

At a meeting of the Vienna Medical association it was charged that the Alpine farmers are confining the planting to just what they will need for themselves and that even less produce than last fall will be available for Vienna at the next harvest. One speaker said that while Austria had more milk cows than Switzerland, children were dying here for lack of milk. In the provinces it was being fed to pigs.

A torpid liver is a heavy handicap to a working man. It robs him of strength, energy and mental alertness. To remove the burden the proper remedy is Prickly Ash Bitters. It is a fine liver stomach and bowel medicine. Price $1.25 per bottle. Gwin-Mays Drug Co., special agents.

Through the roses came to me,
And told in oracular syllables
The things that were to be.

"Abbie Kitchens," the breezes whispered,
"Will know much of the world of man."
"She will search the ancient archives,
And in knowledge lead the van."

"Bess Laird will lead a life of pleasure,
Spent upon the school room floor;
She indeed will be a treasure
To her pupils o'er and o'er."

Then I heard sweet strains of music
Coming softly on the breeze,
And I knew it was Inez Neal
Who so sweetly pressed the keys.

Conn Roach will cross the raging ocean,
To a distant land will wander,
While over mathematics and mechanics
His active mind will ponder.

And there came a message,
Gently wafted by the breeze,
That Clarice Cartwright would be a singer
That never failed to please.

And the blue bird warbled softly,
From its perch upon the vine,
Of the wealth of Arlie Crumley
In a sunny southern clime.

As the music still continued,
I thought of Grace Morrison so serene,
And to her it gently whispered
There has come a happy fate.

And oh, there is another,
Nell Jackson, where is she?
Why, she lives in an ancient castle
Far across the eastern sea.

Then I thought of the little teacher,
Esther LaMar, you will surmise,
But oh, the oracle whispered,
She is so wondrous wise.

Bess Kelly will be an author,
She will tell the story well,
And her books in every household
All the others will excel.

Oscar will rule this mighty nation,
From the east unto the west,
And at every time and station

"MARY REGAN"

Every girl has felt the pre-natal influence that ruled Mary Regan.

A big company of specially selected artists who lived, rather than acted their thrilling roles.

When big business, seeking relaxation, squanders its swollen profits in big pleasures.

Strong men crave excitement, cunning men of doubtful past, beautiful women without memories or hopes swirl through the shining palaces of might recklessly, squandering health, morals, reputation and hard earned fortunes.

President Parker will do his best.

Suddenly all the bells 'gan ringing,
Telling an event so grand,
I listened and James Hodges
Was governor in the land.

Then other bells 'gan ringing,
What story did they tell
They told of a beautiful wedding,
And the bride was Mary Belle.

Then I thought of the quiet senior,
How great crowds she will draw
When to Bessie Neely will be given
All the mysteries of the law.

Carrie Roach, the breezer murmured,
Will be as happy as can be.
For she sails her own airship
Over every land and sea.

Alta Marsh will be an artist,
She such scenes on the canvas will draw
That the world will feel her mission
And will gaze with reverent awe.

The blue bird kept on singing,
Ophelia Gray, where is she?
Oh, she will be rich in jewels,
And as happy as can be.

And I thought, there is still another
Of this wonderful class I know.
Ah, yes, Galen Oliphant sends a message
From the land of ice and snow.
She has gone to Alaska
To teach the Eskimo.

The breezes ceased to murmur,
Then softly began anew,
For they had another story,
As other seniors came in view.

Then the breezes paused a moment
From their murmurings soft and low,
And said in gentle whispers,
"The others' story we do not know,
For their work is not completed—
They have yet a pace to go."

Then the north wind blew up blustery,
Scared my fancies all away,
And I left the Seniors' future,
As the sunset closed the day.

Mr. Morris said in regard to "Our Voluntary Exiles":
"Funny things happen in the state of Oklahoma, especially here in Ada and East Central State Normal. This is the first time that I ever heard of another speaking in the place of a man who was present. It seems to me that you should have profited from the story told in our American literature where John was informed to speak for himself."

It occurs to me that should this Senior-Junior banquet have been put off another week we would have had other members of the "Volunteer Faculty movement." To you, Mr. Gordon, I hope you will find rest and peace in your new position; that your mind will never be bothered by the woes of the many school teachers that are continually begging for something or for a scrap of paper that will give them the rights to inflict punishment upon the more feeble-minded.

Mr. Bradford, we will miss your psychological ideas and will often wonder if this is a true law: "The liability of any cordial activity is directly in proportion to the perambulations of the pathways involved." We will often find use of the law of association when thinking of the term psychology, for we have been told that when two thoughts or ideas are juxtaposed in the mind at the same time, when ever one appears the other also seems to appear.

And to Mr. Sears, the man that has made history about East Central, as well as taught it. From you we have learned that Washington discovered America Friday 2:00 a. m., 1492, and that Columbus was the father of this country, for he was first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen. We also know you are a builder, for it has been hinted that you were at the building of King Solomon's temple.

At last to Mr. Perkins, the man that has been instilling ideas of teaching, or possibly I might say, has been drilling, into the younger sprouts' heads since the beginning of this institution. You doubtless have told hundreds what to do with incorrigible boys and girls, and your medicine was great, but you failed to prescribe for the boy or girl whose father was a member of the school board.

After all, we that are left behind feel that East Central is moving too. We would like to go and share your friendships through life but we have a deeper feeling, and that is that we should stay behind and keep the work going that you have started.

President Gordon mentioned the fact that commencement brings mingled emotions of joy and sorrow. Joy for the work completed and sorrow for the goodbyes that must be said.

He spoke then of the life work calling each of the retiring members of the faculty and wished for each a fuller life of service in his new field. Spoke then of the pleasure of the four years here in Ada. The friendships of students and faculty and the satisfaction of accomplishing certain things in Normal work. He closed with the wish that whatever life work each would be able to enter with full zest into that work.

Dr. Bradford in the toast, "The Future—the Call of Opportunity," had room for a flight of oratory and having indulged in a "possum story," carried his audience out into the stars.

Mr. Perkins brought them back to earth by wishing to all "as you leap upon the banisters of life to slide down, may you never strike a splinter."
